Workplace Safety: Staff continues to assist San Benito County in the development of their Road Department Apprenticeship Training program. We will be training their supervisors as trainers and assisting in formalizing the structure of the program.

Based on input from members and their needs, we have made revisions to the Work Place Violence Prevention, Office Ergonomics Training, Serious Incident Investigation, Safe Lifting and Code of Safe Practices training for Department Safety Representatives. Human Resources Consulting: We have surveyed most of the member H.R. directors to gather information on the most immediate Human Resource needs. We are developing the structure and process for filling those needs.
Director of Workers’ Compensation, Lisa Mitchell talked about attending meetings at CSAC in March, and two telephone CRC Web-Ex meetings in February, and April. Hired new claims examiner-Katie Twitchell, former York examiner at the Redding office and has about six years of claims examiner experience. Filed the Annual Report of Inventory with the Dept. of Workers’ Comp. This is due April 1st of each year. It is different from the SIP Annual report that is due on October 1st of each year.

File Reviews: Sarah and I went to Colusa County, Andrew, Dave, and I went to San Benito and Andrew and I went to Sierra County last week. Andrew and I visited Pacific Claims Management in Fresno after the San Benito file review to look at the claims software we want to purchase.

I attended PARMA and was able to do a lot of networking that is going to help enhance and improve our workers' comp program. Sarah, Andrew and Anita attended the DWC Conference in Oakland and came back with some good updated information. We have attended several trainings in Redding with Shasta County, City of Redding and Sierra Pacific. They were on “Backs and Shoulders”, “Marijuana in the Workplace”, “Preparing and writing letters for Medical-Legal Appointments”.

Anita is continuing to work on her Adjuster Certification training, which is an on-line training. N. Discussion: Performance evaluations of contractors.

INVESTIGATORS: Diane Davis Investigations, Kristin McNelis, L. Katrina Meek all good

HUMAN RESOURCES SPECIALISTS: Jeanne Gravette, Jennifer Shaw, Terence Cassidy (Porter Scott), Employment Law Counsel, Linda Durrer really good

Law Enforcement Grief Counselor: Beverly Paschal
MISC.: George Hills Company: Cota Cole is having issues Rodger Hayton over stepping his bounds he is not an attorney he is an adjuster. Rodgers performance issues misses details, communication issues, picks at attorneys billing and is not shy about voicing his opinion. Colusa County money amount considered between Rodger and legal and it was wrong now they have to go back and ask for more from board. George Hills software conversion and loss control data issues requires a lot of sorting. Discussion was held on changing adjusters and take performance issues to Mike Kielty and Rodger Hayton then revisit in September. York: Trinity County is frustrated the issue is with the software, CSAC/EIA: good, Lexipol: software upgrade and excellent service, Health Metrics: good, Center for Hearing Health, Marcum and Alliant: Kevin doesn’t’ respond to Trinity County everyone else at Alliant is great at responding.
